About

I'm an award winning filmmaker and host who loves working in comedy.

I've scripted a wide variety of work including : half hour single camera comedy, scripted short form, live streams, 360/VR, as well as coming in during post to reshape a show from scratch.

But seriously I love breaking story, fleshing out character/season arcs, and punching up jokes. The writer's room is one of my favorite places on earth.
